

FIELD TRIPS AND WORK PARTIES

see website for full details on all events

www.whidbeyearthday.org for full details

Saturday, April 8, 9 am

See migrating birds at Deer Lagoon with Whidbey Audubon Society.

Saturday, April 15, 8am

Joseph Whidbey State Park and Swantown Lake with Whidbey Audubon Society.

Sunday, April 9, 11am-1pm

Langley beach clean-up to help protect gray whale feeding habitat with Orca Network.

Saturday April 29, 10am-1pm

Walk along Smith & Minor Islands Aquatic Reserve with Audubon & DNR ecologists.

Earth Day is celebrated annually on April 22

Friday & Saturday, April 28 and 29 10am-7pm

Prairie Days

Pacific Rim Institute, Coupeville

Guided tours, native plant sale, learning and exploring at the Pacific Rim Institute for Environmental Stewardship.

Saturday, April 22 EARTH DAY

10am-12pm: service project to remove invasive dune grass at West Beach, Deception Pass State Park.

12:30-2pm: Junior Ranger Program at West Beach, Deception Pass.

7 pm: Earth Day Concert featuring music & poetry honoring our sacred earth. Guest poet, Judith Adams.

Langley United Methodist Church

ART SHOW: Youth Perspective on Social Justice

April 8 – May 29

Exhibition featuring art and poetry by Whidbey Island high school students. Related Climate Arts Project performance takes place on April 19. Bayview Cash Store

Saturday, April 8 11 am – 5 pm

Welcome the Whales Festival

1:30 pm: Parade (downtown Langley)

3:00: Presentation by Joel Reynolds, Western Director and Senior Attorney, Natural Resources Defense Council.

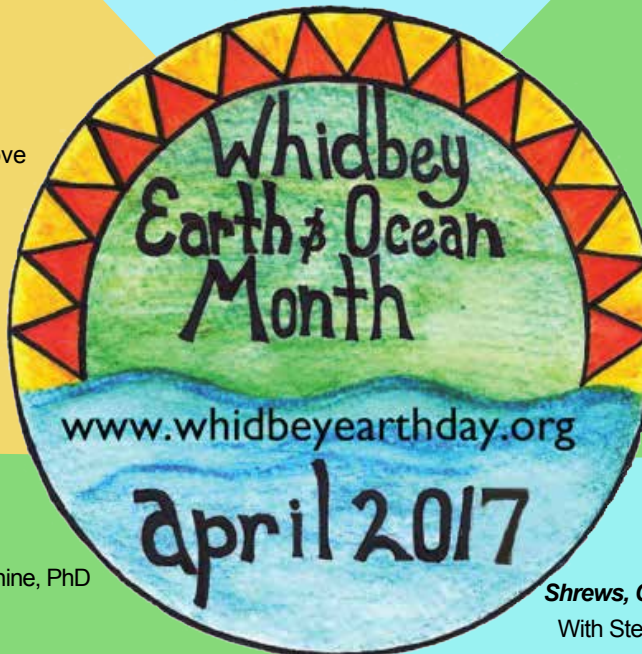

visit www.orcanetwork.org for details.

Wednesday, April 12, 4:00 pm

The Way of Sorrows with All Creation

All are welcome to an interfaith meditation on the sufferings of the Earth. Langley United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall

Visit whidbeyearthday.org for full details and new events!

Sunday, April 30, 9:30am

Long-Term Patterns & New Changes in the Arctic

with Roger Colony, PhD and Tom Leschine, PhD

Trinity Lutheran, Freeland

Sunday, April 23, 9:30am

What's all the Fuss About Climate Change?

with Barbara Bennett, MMA

Trinity Lutheran, Freeland

Thursday, April 20, 7-7:30pm

Science While Sipping

Talking Tips for Tough (Environmental) Topics with Barbara Bennett, MMA

Ott & Murphy Tasting Room, Langley

Wednesday, April 19, 6-8pm

The Climate Arts Project

Spoken word, songs, & sketches on the issue of climate change by the SW High School Drama Club and Green Team. A fundraiser for the drama club.

Bayview Cash Store

EVERYTHING SEPTIC

Septic systems need TLC. Especially for new residents, but will also help longer-term Whidbeyites.

Monday, April 17, 5-8pm: Septic 101 & 201 Freeland Hall

Thursday, April 20, 4-6pm: Septic 101 & Open House Coupeville Library

Monday, April 24, 5-8pm: Septic 101 & 201 Nordic Lodge, Coupeville

To register, call 360-678-7914 or visit islandcountyseptictraining.com

Thursday, April 13, 7 pm

Fur Chase: A Year's Pursuit of Vagrant Shrews, Creeping Voles, & Long-Tailed Weasels

With Steve and Martha Ellis of Whidbey Audubon Coupeville Recreation Hall

Tuesday, April 18, 7 pm

Movie Night featuring Before the Flood—a documentary featuring Leonardo DiCaprio. Retired NASA scientist Randall Berthold will answer questions.

St. Hubert Church, Langley

Wednesday, April 19 7:30am-11:30am

South Whidbey High School earth day program, featuring student performances, panel discussion, volunteer fair, and work party to move middle school vegetable gardens to the high school.

Whidbey's 2017 Earth and Ocean Month is organized by representatives from: Goosefoot • The Greening Congregations Collaborative • Island County Public Health • Orca Network SW Tilth • Whidbey Custom Events • Whidbey ECO Network and all of the good folks mentioned above!

John D Joynt, MBA, CRS
Branch Managing Broker
14596 SR 525, Langley, WA 98260
360-346-0017 www.JohnJoynt.com

kw South Whidbey
KELLERWILLIAMS REALTY

Whidbey Weekly

PC & R
Puget Consulting & Restoration